Linda Wilmes

Linda is an award winning artist in all media, with ties to several art organizations. Although primarily a watercolorist, she does work in the medium the subject dictates or as a client requests on a commissioned piece. Linda is a renowned muralist, an art instructor, demonstrator, a show judge, and a resident artist of Framations Gallery, in St. Charles, MO, as well as Wilmes Fine Art Studio, Wentzville, Mo.

"Working in all media, watercolor is my primary focus, with emphasis on color and light. My love of history and the objects that have brought me where I am today intrigue me, especially with the added character of rust and peeling paint. Any subject is used especially if a new challenge is evident."
